Support your favorite worker, help build the point score for that worker's points on subscriptions, decrease at regular intervals, subscribe now when your subscription would mean more points for that worker. On March 26 for the point score on that day the awards will be made, it will be a great day for everyone who works in the campaign.

Select Few More
The Campaign, just announced, is not too late to enter. Get busy, and share in the great money earning opportunity offered residents of Torrance and vicinity. It isn't when you enroll—it's what you do when you enroll. The campaign management is interested in enrolling a few more ambitious men and women to complete the required limited number of workers; local housewives who have a few spare hours a day who would like to turn those hours into cash, men who are willing to put forth sincere effort in any hours they might have desiring to add to their income; aggressive, determined and sincerely ambitious folk. There is no set number of hours that you must work, your own enthusiasm determines the time and effort you can put in and

PTA Women 'Come as they Are' To Kidnap Breakfasts in Area

MARY WEBB

Over $80 "ransom money" was collected last Tuesday when the Riviera PTA staged their successful kidnap breakfasts at six different homes in this area.
In a carefully staged "plot," the kidnaping PTA mothers, twenty-four strong, descended on unwary housewives, giving each just a few moments to put on their coats before they were whisked away to one of the breakfast homes.

Each of the six hostess homes rocked with laughter as fresh carloads of oddly attired residents were deposited at the doorsteps. All the kidnap victims were ordered to "come just as you are," and the collection of robes, housecoats, slippers and curlers made a hilarious morning for the PTAs. Hostesses for the event were Mmes. John Walt, of 376 Paseo de Gracia Raymond Hill, 816 Calle de Arboles; Marvin Sims, 189 Via la Cienega; Arthur Linney, 802 Calle Miramar; Lee Kendall, 503 Calle Mayor; and Thorsten Burman, 315 Calle de Anadula.
The rattling of swords now going on in the Far East had its effect here last week when the Torrance City Council turned down the Pacific Coast Little League in its plea for playing space at the Torrance Airport. The Councilmen told Little League representatives headed by president Al Marzilli and director Norm Hawkins, that due Roths to Open Seventh Store in West L.A.

The latest addition to the Roth's Super Market chain will celebrate its official grand opening today. It was announced yesterday by Milton Katz, spokesman for the firm.
Located at Sepulveda and National in West Los Angeles, the new Roth's Market boasts a floor space of 30,000 square feet. Every possible modern scientific development in the food industry has been incorporated in the plans that will undoubtedly identify Roth's as one of the most progressive food chains in Southern California.
One of the outstanding features of the new Roth's market will be the mammoth parking facilities designed to handle capacity crowds at peak shopping hours, it was stated by Ben Roth, executive of the firm.
An elaborate grand opening sale is planned during the first week-end of operation. Eddie Electro and his band, free rides for the kiddies, entertainment, and prizes plus guest stars are scheduled to attract thousands during this special event.
The new Roth's Super Market will be number seven in the chain that opened its first unit over a quarter century ago under the direction of the late Aaron Roth.
Other Roth's markets are located at Culver City, Santa Monica, Torrance, Hawthorne, Ventura, and Los Angeles.

earn accordingly. Telephone the campaign headquarters, FA 8-4005, or come in personally to The TORRANCE HERALD, ask for the details. There is room for a few more live wires! Enrollment will end soon. Don't wait, telephone or come in today.

Workers' Attention
The names of all active workers will be published in the Feb. 10 issue of The HERALD. By active is meant having reported in to the campaign office with subscriptions and collections. Between now and Feb. 10, every worker will have an opportunity to have made his start. Each worker must report in personally on Tuesdays and Fridays, official report days. Those who have been putting forth consistent, sincere effort are piling up promises that will swell their points score and build their earnings. Many who started out timidly, finding fine support of friends, are developing into real workers and are going to give others some real competition! Campaign officials are proud of you—keep up the good work. Let's really get going now, do your level best to build each report for each report day. I'll pay off on March 26th in earnings. Don't let anything discourage you, make up your mind you are as capable as any one enrolled to build your point score to winning points. It's the consistent worker that wins; the old story of the tortoise and the hare still holds good. Make use of every minute of every hour of every day that you have spare time. The next seven weeks will fly by as days and may your success be as great as your effort.

to the national emergency they could not at this time make a commitment on leasing a playing field at the airport. They added that until such a time as the Defense Department indicates whether it will need the field as a guided missile base, the Council cannot commit itself. The next 30 days may tell the story on the future use of the field they added.
In the meanwhile, 250 Little League boys from southwest Torrance will continue to practice on a piece of ground located at Ocean Blvd. and Sepulveda. League spokesmen said. This field however, is adjacent to a new subdivision and could be rezoned to commercial use at any time.

It has been over six months since the Pacific Coast League officials started their huckster search for a playing field. Hopes for space at the El Retiro park went aglimmering following a Riviera Homeowners' Ass'n meeting a few months ago. Since then, officials have searched all over the area for suitable or half-suitable grounds which they could lease for their Little League venture.
Things looked up for them this past month after the Torrance Airport Commission headed by Robert Herick, approved preliminary plans for lease of ground at the airport and sent a recommendation to that effect to the Council.
Brownie troop No. 37 last Saturday learned some of the facts of life at the Ingewood Dairy Farm when the group visited the dairy to learn how cows were milked and the milk bottled in modern style.
The 12 Brownies of the troop were transported to the dairy by five mothers. They came fully equipped with sandwiches to which the dairy added milk and ice cream.

Strip Road Jobs Listed By Gibson
Seven street improvement contracts totaling $49,133 were awarded in the 15th council district in January, Councilman John S. Gibson announced yesterday. It was one of the highest totals of contracts awarded in a single month in more than a year, the councilman said.
Jobs expected to reach the half-million dollar mark are scheduled to be awarded during February, setting a new all-time record for number of projects set to contract, Gibson said, adding that the paving of Central Ave. in the northern portion of the district would amount to about half this sum. A total of 14 jobs could be awarded under normal processing, Gibson stated.

The Shoshonin Strip area got the lion's share of a $1.1 million award, getting work ordered on three projects, with one each in Watts, Wilmington, Harbor City, and San Pedro.
Processing of assessment proceedings under a new procedural ordinance, sponsored last year by Councilman Gibson, is becoming effective and should, in time, materially reduce the number of months necessary to complete a project.
Three special projects, financed from public funds, are included in the expected February awards.
